A Rare Chance.

In order to make some needed repairs in his store building, and in order to prevent moving goods; Chas. Ilfeld has commenced a closing out sale, the rule to last for thirty days, and every article to be sold at cost. In the present store Ilfeld has an immense stock of everything that the heart of man could desire, or the feminine heart covet, the goods being fresh, new, and bought from the latest market, at lowest prices. During the next thirty days the bargains they will offer will most probably crowd the store from morning till night.

Auction Sale.

There will be a sale by auction on the plaza in front of Wesche's store, in west Las Vegas, on Saturday, June 19th: A lot of round tables, square tables, cupboard's, bedsteads, mattresses, blankets, counters and bedding, chairs, flours, safes, looking glasses, pitchers, and bowls, toilet sets, wash stands, sashes and doors for a hot house, mops, a butchers block, and a hay cutter, with a general assortment of other goods.

New Departure.

On and after June 19th, the boarding and restaurant rooms will close, having engaged in the laundry business, which will require our whole attention. P. M. JONES.

Las Vegas bakry and restaurant, June 16th 1880.

Houghton's Armory.

O. L. Houghton has a regular arsenal of fire-arms, the largest stock in all the west. It is not only for a retail, but for a wholesale trade that he is prepared. His advantages for buying enables him to sell this class of goods as low as they can be got anywhere.

M. Heise still keeps up the boom in the wholesale liquor and cigar trade.
